

Agile recruitment solutions

Flexible and scalable RPO solutions to drive business growth.

At greenbean we understand your business, your culture and your goals. We deliver successful talent solutions that work for you.

What do we do?

We deliver agile talent solutions in totality or on a project basis.

Offering a fully account managed and flexible model, greenbean integrates seamlessly into your business, supporting growth and helping deliver results faster.

Providing solutions for when:

- You need to focus on core business
- Your current recruitment model is no longer effective
- Quality of candidates is becoming a challenge
- You are not easily identifiable as an Employer of Choice
- You need to hire people into a project, fast.

greenbean RPO helps you reduce costs

For companies who might not have the resource or in house recruitment expertise, offering you significant cost and time savings. greenbean integrates as an extension to your team, adopting and promoting your company culture whilst applying centralised processes.

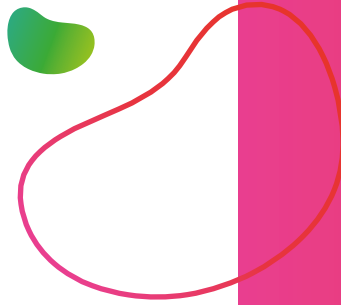

greenbean MSP

Let us manage and engage with your temporary or contractor workforce. Providing you with full control and visibility through one solution we manage your agency supply chain, ensure compliance and provide you with one consolidated invoice. All whilst bringing you cost savings and ensuring effective employer brand management.

greenbean Project RPO – Plug & Play

For those who want to retain control over some elements of the recruitment process but leverage a partnership with an outsource provider for particular projects or parts of their every day recruitment process. This project-based, on demand approach provides your in house experts with bespoke support from our consultants to guide you through your journey into outsourcing.

We are passionate about positive experiences and outcomes, see how you could benefit.

Transform your approach

Rethink the way your company recruits. We can help develop your long term people plan in line with your business strategy, and ensure you attract and retain the right talent to help you get there.

Gain competitive advantage

By partnering with the experts at greenbean, using innovative research tools and technology, you will directly impact your people strategy through informed decision making, giving you competitive advantage.

Reduce costs

greenbean RPO helps you to cut costs, increase efficiencies, whilst delivering better quality candidates, faster. Moreover, our service can increase new hire and employee retention, mitigating the costs associated with employee turnover.

Deliver measurable business results

Are you being asked to measure the effectiveness of your talent acquisition strategy? We can help you provide quantifiable data on the impact of your recruitment efforts enabling informed decision making.

Focus on high value priorities

Your internal resources are limited. By partnering with us you can free up you and your team to focus on strategic talent management and projects, with the confidence that your talent acquisition needs will be met.

Elevate your employer brand greenbean knows how to find, engage with and attract the talent you need to help drive your business forward. As RPO experts we manage every aspect of the process, ensuring your brand message is clear, consistent and that the candidate experience is seamless.

Our agile recruitment solution is tailored to your business and our team of experts will transform the way you manage your recruitment needs.
